The 1967 Cardinal

Caroline High School

Bowling Green, Virginia

Foreword

We, the Annual Staff, present to you the 1967 CARDINAL. It is our sincere hope that this book represents fond memories of gay and sober moments. May it reveal you, for you are a part of its existence.

May this book represent our school; a school which is more than bricks and mortar, concrete and tile, books and blackboards, and athletics and studies. Let it also represent a time . . . a time of learning, of working, of playing, and a time of yearning for those things yet to come.

It is with this hope that we present this book to you, the students of Caroline High School.

ADVERTISEMENTS 75

As a token of fond appreciation to one whose patient guidance has made possible the publication of past yearbooks, we respectfully dedicate the 1967 CARDINAL to MR. LYLE RAY SMITH.

His well-known words, "STUDY, STUDY, STUDY!" have inspired many students. May he continue to do so for many years to come.

In Memoriam

Now what?

Now that you have graduated you must answer the inevitable question—"now what?" For all of you it means the continuation of studies in one way or another, because learning must and will continue throughout your lives.

In the years to come you may have no more report cards or examinations, but everything you do will be judged realistically. Your preparation for every goal will be carefully watched, thoughtfully evaluated.

Your courses have given you the tools for thought and judgment. They will serve you well, whatever the future has in store for you.

Here at American Viscose we owe much of our progress to the adoption of new ideas, new improved methods and fresh approaches brought to us by young people like yourselves who never learned to stop learning.
